The Luxury of Space in the Heart of Tokyo

Discover a new level of luxury in the heart of town. Whether you're a discerning corporate traveller or a carefree holiday-maker, you will enjoy the convenient location and elegant design of Fraser Suites Akasaka, Tokyo. Close to Roppongi, Toranomon, Ginza and Shibuya, there is easy metro access with three stations nearby – Akasaka, Akasaka-mitsuke and Aoyama-itcho.

The 23-storey property has 224 suites that are spacious by Tokyo standards – 32 square metre studios or 60 square metre one-bedroom apartments, with the option of a kitchenette. Designed by the award-winning team of Hirsch Bedner Associates, Fraser Suites Akasaka, Tokyo marries Japanese tradition with modern architectural touches to blend seamlessly with upscale Akasaka's identity as a prime commercial and residential district.

Together with refined luxury and inimitable Japanese 'omotenashi' hospitality, Fraser Suites Akasaka, Tokyo promises to make your visit a memorable one.

Studio Executive King

Fraser Suites Akasaka, Tokyo is more than a serviced apartment, with full-service hotel features including a restaurant serving Italian and Japanese dining. It is all part of Frasers Hospitality's philosophy of anticipating travellers' needs, and always staying ahead of the hospitality curve. Meeting spaces with seamless internet connectivity and flexible configurations suit all business needs; while a fully-equipped 24-hour gym, golf simulator and wellness Retreat ensure you're fit and relaxed during your stay.
